2025 Riesling New release Light and bright in the glass expressing layers of citrus blossom, white flowers and lemon zest on the nose. The palate has a delicate blush of ripe citrus, attractive mineral notes and fine acidity. Beautiful as a young wine, will develop richness and complexity with age.				$ 30	$ 28	$ 25	$ 24
2025 Semillon New release "A variety that Ashbrook has been making for decades and it is always one of their most popular. The season was very good and allowed the semillon to display its full range of grassy citrus notes with an underlay of tropical fruit. The colour is bright and brilliant and the palate just sings with lovely zingy ripe fruits, some nice lemony freshness, nettle and light stone fruit characters. Lovely wine." Ray Jordan Wine Review 2026				$ 30	$ 28	$ 25	$ 24
2025 Sauvignon Blanc New release Light straw colour with hues of green. Perfumed fresh passionfruit aromas with attractive grassy undertones, ripe English gooseberry and tropical fruit flavours. Lovely, long and refreshing.				$ 30	$ 28	$ 25	$ 24
2025 Verdelho New release "This is another variety that Ashbrook has been championing for many years. This was a very good season for this variety, and it has produced some marvellous fruit characters. It certainly picks up the tropical note you expect with verdelho, but it also has a keen edge of lemony citrus that gives it precision and fineness. It will come together beautifully over the next couple of years and deliver terrific drinking." Ray Jordan Wine Review 2026				$ 30	$ 28	$ 25	$ 24
2023 Rosé Discontinued line 100% Estate-grown Shiraz, gently whole bunch pressed, free-run juice fermented dry. Sings of wild strawberry, fresh watermelon and Marri flower, lightly textured, perfect summertime drinking.				$ 30	$ 28	$ 25	$ 24
2024 Chardonnay New release "Ashbrook has put a lot of time and energy into elevating its chardonnays, and it's certainly paying dividends with another excellent wine from a season which, despite the heat, produced some first-rate chardonnays. There are plenty of tropical fruit characters here with hints of lemon rind and fresh quince, and then the palate integrates the oak and fruit perfectly, harnessing a sustained finish." Ray Jordan Wine Review 2026				$ 45	$ 43	$ 40	$ 36
2023 Reserve Chardonnay "A step up in intensity from the Estate chardonnays, with ripe peaches and stone fruits. Vanilla and clove on the nose....The palate is substantial, with all of the factors evident on the nose, plus a little dried apricot and ginger. There's a creamy texture, and the wine is balanced, with depth and intensity. Full bodied, and I am looking forward to seeing how it develops over time." Waiters Friend, The Auswine Forum, 09 MAY 2025				$ 70	$ 68	$ 65	$ 56
2021 Shiraz "Bright red and youthful in the glass. Aromas of mulberry, sweet spice, satsuma plum, dried flowers, herbs and briar. Fleshy, juicy, dark fruit driven and generously flavoured. Plump, with a core of plum, spice and brambly earthiness. Long, dry and textured." Aaron Brasher, The Real Review, 26 Jan 2025				$ 35	$ 33	$ 30	$ 28
2021 Cabernet Sauvignon "Bright red and youthful in the glass. Complex aromas of mulberry, dark cherry, blackberry, spice, violets and an earthy, woody brambliness. Firm, bright, medium bodied and structured in flavour. Dark cherry, redcurrant, cedar, firm tannin and snappy acidity are all nicely at play. Long and layered." Aaron Brasher, The Real Review, 03 Feb 2025				$ 40	$ 38	$ 35	$ 32
2019 Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon "Ashbrook Estate's cabernet sauvignon is clocking up nearly 50 years, and it's at the heart of the Reserve, bolstered by decent glugs of petit verdot, cabernet franc and merlot. It's a stately wine, rich, intensely flavoured and more savoury than fruit driven, although there are cassis and blackberry nuances. Dry spices, some raspberry leaf and mint, roasted tomatoes plus savoury, nutty and cedary oak. Fuller bodied, yet not too wieldy, there's a plushness, even if the tannins are firm and plentiful. This has a lot of appeal, buoyed by fresh acidity." 94 points Jane Faulkner, Halliday Wine Companion, 26 MAY 2025				$ 65	$ 63	$ 60	$ 52
